Reading Skills(5 Marks)

Read the following passage carefully and choose the correct option:

Everybody has some aim in life. Dolly too has an aim which is to become a doctor when she grows up. It is true that her parents want her to become an engineer, for her father is in this profession. Her grandfather was also an engineer Dolly has no interest in engineering. She wants to take up those subjects that will be useful to her for the medical studies. Now what is her idea of a good doctor? A good doctor considers himself to be a true servant of the people. Fee is important to him but not the main object of his life. His aim is to remove the pain and the illness of his patients, and fill their hearts with hope. Words of hope coming from the lips of a kind doctor are like a tonic. Dolly knows that a doctor's duty is not easy, but she also knows that a doctor forgets all his discomfort when he is able to bring a smile on the face of a crying patient.
